AFTERNOON TEA MENU

£45 per person | 1pm - 4pm

To salute the sun and celebrate the season, we've joined forces with our good friends at Neal's Yard Remedies and London Essence to turn Dalloway Terrace into a wild escape in the heart of London.

The result is a spectacular cross-pollination of passions designed to delight...

Our Afternoon Tea menu is a restorative remedy featuring perennial favourites from the Neal's Yard Remedies range alongside fresh British produce and sustainably sourced ingredients.

And, for those of us who crave something with a little more punch, our friends at London Essence have brought their exquisite mixers, made with distilled botanicals, to a singularly sensational cocktail menu.

As part of Neal's Yard Remedies' Save the Bees campaign, £1 from every Afternoon Tea will be donated to the Bumblebee Conservation Trust, the only charity dedicated wholly to saving the UK's bumblebees and their habitats.
